

Catch A Fire
(A Call for Revolution)
by YahZion EL

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; these words inspired by Nesta Marley & The Hunger Games.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; being a revolutionary there is no shame.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; fighting a revolution to overthrow oppression is the only way.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; no more mental slavery today.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; we do this for our children, whom will never be enslave.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; we must teach and show them what freedom is, so that they'll never want to be a slave.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; we'll embraced the "Mau Mau" way.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; we must burn and scorn the oppressors, for freedom is our only fire pathway.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; the desire for freedom is for all.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; the present day corrupt system like Babylon must fall.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; its a new day and age to begin.

Catch a fire, Catch a fire; it's time for the melaninated people to lead the way for this oppress injustice to end.
