

Midnight Beauty – The Dark & Lovely One
by YahZion EL

My idea women is not black & blue; I truly cherish a women of midnight beauty through & through.

I search for a women whom is a dark & lovely one; who's melaninated skin shines like a black pearl in the sun.

I want a deep dark chocolate love; who's darkness engulf me like the universe above.

When I look into her eye's to sense her pitch black soul; I long to embrace her dark beauty and learn of things she's never told.

Like a dark crystal being a wonder to behold; I'll never discard her love for she is pure as Black Gold.

Like a shadow in the night unseen; I can sense her spirit even in my dreams.

My midnight love is so dark and so pure; my dearest dark & lovely stand strong her beauty unhidden and sheer.

Antiquity of dark beauties whom have been queens and leaders of men; I've admired there wisdom, intelligence, courage and strength from within.

I solely desire a crystal black women in my life; one midnight beauty dark & lovely would be so good & so right.

To all my dark & lovely's who are the chocolate diamonds in this time; I salute you all my midnight beauty, dark & lovely so fine.
