

What Can A Brother Do?
by YahZion EL

What can a brother do? If he's a lost soul; can not find his way back to the fold.

What can a brother do? If he's has long been a fool; unable to stop being used as a tool.

What can a brother do? If he's has learned that he has his master name; he's unable or unwilling to take on his own legacy, oh what a shame.

What can a brother do? When other women, including his own have no respect for him at all; he's not willing to make that change and without it continues to fall.

What can a brother do? If his whole life action, has been about negativity & violence reaction.

What can a brother do? If he's ignorant of self, and not committed to do his inner best.

What can a brother do? If his very own manship has been defined by a foreign entity; how does he compare himself or seek to overthrow his social engineered identity.

What can a brother do? If he's not willing to change; in this life game, the major key to life is the commitment to change.
