When I look at the conditions of the world today; I wonder why is it this way?

When I observe the behavior of people and I'm in dismay; I still wonder why is it this way?

When I see the powerful people control of the powerless ones with hate; I wonder why is it this why?

Can the world system which is so corrupt anyway; maintain it dominance, if so why is it this way?

Will the poverty stricken ever unite to overthrow the wealthy in this day; time will tell why is it this way?

The respect for human dignity has been lost in the confusion of foolish pride and evil play; why is it this way?

Why are families no longer caring about each other and their elders before their homecoming days away; why is it this way?

How long can people live in economic decay; why is it this way?

When did fiat currency become the defining principal of our incompassionate net worthiness parlay; why is it this way?

Will the sleepers finally awaken from their illusionary dream state; why is it this way?

How long will the psychopath or sociopath rule over us in their psychotic & neurotic fate; why is it this way?

When will truth over lies finally have its permanent stay; why is it this way?

The cry for Love, Truth, Peace, Freedom & Justice is on our children lips and they have no patience to wait; why is it this way?

The time is now to make a revolutionary positive change for the sake of the planet today; no more why is it this way.
